

CAMPUS ART

LIMESTONE SCAVENGER HUNT

Have you ever noticed that the architecture of Indiana University is unified? This was intentional! All buildings constructed after 1885 were built using Limestone, or with a stone façade to mimic Limestone. These nine sculptures are located across campus, some free-standing and some attached to the buildings themselves! Find all nine and return your sheet to University Collections at McCalla for a prize!

Building:

Building:

Building:

Building:

Building:

Building:

Building:

Building:

Building: